

English Martyrs

Feastday: May 4

A famed group of Catholic martyrs who were put to death for the faith and who received canonisation on October 25, 1970, by Pope Paul VI.

The saints belonging to this group are covered in individual entries, but the members are:

Alban Roe (January 21),
Alexander Bryant (December 1),
Ambrose Barlow (September 11),
Anne Line (February 27),
Augustine Webster (May 4),
Cuthbert Mayne (November 29),
David Lewis (August 27),
Edmund Arrowsmith (August 28),
Edmund Campion (December 1),
Edmund Gennings (December 10),
Henry Morse (February 1),
Henry Walpole (April 7),
John Almond (December 5),
John Boste (July 24),
John Houghton (May 4),
John Jones (July 12),
John Kemble (August 22),
John Lloyd (July 22),
John Payne (April 2),
John Plessington (July 19),
John Rigby (June 19),
John Roberts (December 9),
John Stone (May 12),
John Southworth (June 27),
John Wall (August 22),
Luke Kirby (May 30),
Margaret Clitherow (October 21),
Margaret Ward (August 30),
Nicholas Owen (March 2),
Philip Evans (July 22),
Philip Howard (October 19),
Polydore Plasden (December 10),
Ralph Sherwin (December 1),
Richard Gwyn (October 17),

Richard Reynolds (May 4),
Robert Lawrence (May 4),
Robert Southwell (February 21),
Swithun Wells (December 10), and Thomas Garnet (June 26).